Project Description

About You: We are looking for someone with a flair for writing, creating, and using their passion for digital design to build connections between people and promote cultural and educational exchange. Through dynamic and immersive visuals, our eIntern will help prepare students and scholars from both the United States and Central Asia for their global experiences. This platform will host detailed country information, alumni narratives, and provide a variety of resources to potential and current Fulbright grantees.

Our idea: interested? Apply by showing us your potential! Take this map of Tajikistan (or pick another one) and create an interactive experience. Is it a website? An app? We want you to bring Tajikistan alive. Show us the cities, people, language, food -- you decide!
